The Best Vietnam Outsourcing Directories Compared, Plus Publications Worth Reading

To research Vietnam outsourcing properly, you need two kinds of sources: directories that list vendors and publications that explain the market. This guide covers both, so you can build a shortlist and check it against independent reporting.

Part 1: Directories for finding Vietnamese vendors

Directory	Type	Good for	Keep in mind
Outsource2Vietnam.com	Vietnam-only directory	Browsing 700+ Vietnamese companies across sectors; direct links to vendor sites.	Verify each vendor yourself.
Clutch	Global review platform	Client reviews, rate bands, filters	Sponsored and Verified listings rank above organic ones
GoodFirms	Global review platform	Second opinion on reviews	Some listings may involve fees
Outsource Accelerator	BPO marketplace and adviser	BPO shortlists, price guides, quote matching	Strongest for BPO
Yellow Pages Vietnam	General B2B directory, operating since 2010	Manufacturers, exporters and suppliers across industries	Broad, not outsourcing-specific
Government and data-vendor registries	Company registers	Confirming a company legally exists	No quality signal

How to use both

1. Build a long list from two directories, one specialist and one global.
2. Read two or three recent articles on your sector to check that the claims you hear from vendors match the market.
3. Check regulations before contracting: data protection, IP, and wages change quickly.
4. Validate each shortlisted vendor with references and a pilot.
