Outsource2Vietnam.com vs Clutch, GoodFirms, and Outsource Accelerator

If you want to contact a Vietnamese outsourcing company directly, with no go-between, Outsource2Vietnam.com is built for that: each listing links to the vendor's own website. Clutch and GoodFirms are broader, review-driven global directories; Outsource Accelerator is BPO-focused; outsourcetovietnam.org is another Vietnam-focused platform. Each suits a different buyer, and many people use more than one.

Information below comes from each site's public pages as of November 2026. Check current details on each site.

Where Outsource2Vietnam.com is different

- Vietnam-only depth. One site covers a software house in Hanoi, a call centre in Ho Chi Minh City and a factory in the south.
- Direct contact. You go from the listing to the company's own site and contact it yourself. There is no intake form or matching step in between.
- Rotation, not bidding. Its public description says every listing gets equal rotation exposure and that it takes no commission on deals.
- Many languages. The site is available in several languages, including English, Japanese, German, French, Spanish, Korean and Chinese, which helps non-English buyers.

Where the others are stronger

- Clutch has a large review base, verified client interviews and filters for budget, size and industry across countries. Its trade-off is that sponsored and Verified listings sit above organic results, and its Pay Per Lead programme starts at US$25 a lead with a US$1,000 monthly minimum.
- GoodFirms also offers reviews and rankings, and says it conducts a review process before listing companies, noting some listings may involve fees.
- Outsource Accelerator offers advisory support, price guides and quote matching, which helps buyers who want hand-holding, particularly for BPO.

Which should you use?

Your situation	Good starting point
You want to browse many Vietnamese vendors and write to them yourself	Outsource2Vietnam.com
Client reviews are your main decision tool	Clutch or GoodFirms, then cross-check
You want advice and matching for a BPO project	Outsource Accelerator

A practical approach is to build your long list on a Vietnam-specialist directory, check reputations on a review platform, and confirm everything on a live call before a pilot.

Browse the directory at Outsource2Vietnam.com and write directly to Vietnamese companies.
